

PORSCHE CLUB OF AMERICA PRIVACY POLICY

We will tell you the sources for personal information we collect on our members. We will tell you what measures we take to secure that information. We use some terms that are defined near the end of this policy.

THE CONFIDENTIALITY, SECURITY, AND INTEGRITY OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We do not provide to anyone outside of PCA personal information about our members, their interests, their cars, their home or email addresses, their personal information or data. Our members' personal information is not made available for mailing lists or to businesses, even if they are involved in Porsche® car related activities. It is not made available to Porsche Cars North America, Porsche, A.G., or any of its affiliate companies. We do NOT disclose any personal information about you to anyone outside of PCA, except as required by law. Our members' personal information is used within PCA only on a need to know basis. For example, we do not provide one Regional Club with the personal information about another Regional Club or its PCA members. We restrict access to personal information about members to those employees who need to know that information to perform their jobs, and to our officers, committee members and staff who need to know that information to serve in their roles with us. We maintain reasonable safeguards to guard your personal information.

If you cease to be a PCA member, we will follow our then-current privacy policies and practices with respect to your personal information.
