Raventos “De La Finca” Conca del Riu Anoia 2020

The Champagne of South Eastern Spain! This Cava is in a league of it's own creating their own D.O. for recognition of their quality of wine production.

Domaine Raimbault “Les Fossiles” Sancerre 2022

Dating back to the 1600's, the Raimbault family is one of the oldest Sancerre producing houses in the area. Their flagship wine “Le Fossiles” is indicative of the ancient marine Fossils that are still found within their vineyards.

Los Bermejós, Lanzarote Malvasia Seco 2022

Vineyards grown on volcanic islands 125 Kilometers off the coast of Africa, yet affiliated with Spain. This unique wine is the perfect compliment to any seafood cuisine.

De Forville Barbaresco 2019

Based on the prized grape of Northern Italy, Nebbiolo. You can only be Barbaresco if you're from the small medieval town of Barbaresco. More finesse driven from its counterpart town of Barolo and hauntingly beautiful.

J. McClelland Napa Cabernet 2019

Produced by a 5th generation winemaking family, This Cabernet offers some of the best from Napa Valley. Comprised of hillside vineyards and valley floor fruit and offering decadent flavors that Napa is known for.
